Subject: Re Majka Polish shop

Dear Mrs Beynon,

I was wondering if I could ask you who do I send a letter of objection to for the licence to sell alcohol at Majka Polish shop bridge Street llanybydder.

I see there is an application to sell alcohol at these premises and I know I live just outside the village I do feel quite strongly about this first due to the fact that there are two shops in Llanybydder all ready selling alcohol and due to the fact that the Polish have just recently been given suspended sentences first fighting while been drunk in the middle of Llanybydder should show that another outlet selling alcohol in Llanybydder is not necessary.

Many of the Polish either buy there alcohol in Londis or premier in the village and this is usually quite early on in the evening where some of them gather at the wooden horse on the square or in and around the band stand very close to where the Majka shop will be.

Only last month I witness 5 Polish men drinking in the car park near the band stand and they were shouting and even more worrying they were lighting fireworks they had rockets and we're lighting them and throwing them up into the sky . There were several cars parked in the car park that night and it could have caused a fire.

I witnessed these men but as they were quite obviously drinking and all had alcohol in there hands shouting in Polish to each other I felt that should anyone have said anything to them it would have been a very unpleasant situation.

I feel that having them drinking in public is not something that should be in couraged and having another outlet selling alcohol in such a small village will only in courage this kind of behaviour.

Also anyone who goes to llanybydder at night to use the local shops does not and should not feel uneasy having to see this going on also along the river bank down passed the Old vale of aeron flats the footpath along there in terms summer evenings there are Polish drinking and sitting this path is used by young children and it's has been said that they feel uncomfortable walking amount them drinking.

So I would like to object to the licence application for alcohol to be sold in the Majka shop in Llanybydder.

Yours faithfully
Patricia Baker
