11th January 2016	Forthcoming Items - Unanimously resolved that a date for the submission of a report to the Committee or a development session for elected members in relation to corporate manslaughter, be confirmed by the date of the next meeting.	The Committee's previous request for a development session was already included in the Member Development Strategy. During the past months a new in-house training programme on 'Effective Leadership in Health & Safety' for officers has been finalised and this includes presenting a broader overview of the roles and responsibilities that frame the context for the Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007. This training session is currently being adapted for elected members and officers are in the process of clarifying the arrangements for the roll out of a session for county councillors.	Marie Edwards / Eddie Cummings	26th February 2016	On-going
