Carmarthenshire Youth Support Service - Update

BRIEF SUMMARY OF PURPOSE OF REPORT

Carmarthenshire Youth Support Service

Carmarthenshire Youth Support Service brings together youth work and youth justice statutory provision under a single management structure. The Service allows for the development of a holistic approach to the delivery of youth support services across Carmarthenshire.

The Youth Support Service has sought to maintain consistent delivery of services and to be flexible and responsive to the needs of children and young people during the pandemic. The YSS Management Group has collaborated to ensure that staffing resources have been effectively managed and allocated, and this has included assisting with the staffing of school hubs; some staff were also directed to assist with food delivery duties.

The Service also has adapted policy and practice to be able continue to deliver services under relevant COVID-19 guidance. This has included use of door-stepping/garden visits as required across the service; better use of technology (Facebook; Instagram; phone call and text) was supported by staff being provided with smart phones.

A Youth Justice Contingency Plan and a Youth Justice Recovery Plan were produced in line with Youth Justice Board requirements during 2020. Additionally, the YSS Principal Manager attended a meeting with Estyn Local Authority Link Inspectors to discuss youth work delivery during COVID-19.

There has been an emphasis on the identification of vulnerable children and young people during the period, so that they can be offered appropriate guidance and support whether from the service or via onward referral/signposting. Safeguarding has remained of paramount importance and there has been good partnership working with Social Services, Health and Education. Reporting of performance against funding streams has continued as usual and staff have continued to receive an excellent range of training and Continuous Professional Development opportunities to maintain and develop a skilled workforce.

Non-school based staff have mainly worked from home during the period however, elements service delivery, such as youth justice duties, have included necessary attendance at court and at the police station. Staff have worked with managers to identify essential aspects of service delivery which has included checking in with children, young people and families, transporting children and young people to essential appointments, assisting with housing etc.

Carmarthenshire Youth Support Service

Carmarthenshire Youth Support Service brings together youth work and youth justice statutory provision under a single management structure. The Service allows for the development of a holistic approach to the delivery of youth support services across Carmarthenshire.

Vision

A service that provides a robust range of support from open access to specialised support, enabling children, young people, and young adults (aged 8-25 years) to access what they need, when and where they need it so that they can reach their full personal, social, and educational potential.

Core Principles

Carmarthenshire Youth Support Service:

- Will promote Children's Rights and ensure that children and young people have a good, positive, and meaningful experience of participation
- Is innovative and creative in its service delivery
- Contributes to the Local Authority's delivery of early intervention, prevention, and support within the county
- Has well-trained staff and volunteers who can offer a range of services to children, young people and families in Welsh and English
- Uses restorative approaches in what we do
- Engages with families and carers for better outcomes

Service Priorities for 2021/23

- To ensure that the Service provides a high quality, responsive and accessible youth support provision for children, young people and young adults in Welsh and English
- To carry out a self-assessment against the National Participation Standards
- To support children and young people to access appropriate health and wellbeing services
- To support the process of curriculum development in schools and support educational attainment and attendance for children, young people, and young adults
- To become a Trauma Informed, Adverse Childhood Experiences Aware service
- To divert children and young people away from the criminal justice system
- To prevent offending and re-offending of children and young people
- To adopt holistic approaches in working with children, young people, and families

Youth Support Service - 4 Teams

Universal Support Team

Responsible for open access provision including:

- Leading on Participation and Children's Rights and supporting children and young people's participation in decisions that affect them
- Adventurous outdoor activities
- Term time and holiday programmes
- County Council youth clubs in Carmarthenshire
- Supporting the delivery of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award (Gold; Silver; Bronze Awards)
- Programmes of accredited learning e.g., Open College Network; ASDAN; John Muir Award
- Delivery of activities to support community safety and to reduce anti-social behaviour
- Co-ordination of staff training and professional development
- Residential programmes for young people both in the UK and abroad

Targeted Youth Support Team (16-25 years)

Responsible for the delivery of a range support for children, young people and young adults aged 16-25 years and their families. The team works with individuals, families and groups who are be affected by a broad range of issues associated with:

- Family relationships
- Emotional and mental health issues
- Homelessness
- Not being engaged in in education, employment, or training

Targeted Youth Support (8-18 years)

The team includes school-based youth workers in all county secondary schools and Coleg Sir Gâr, as well as peripatetic School Engagement Project staff.

- Staff work with children in all secondary schools, as well as those aged 10-16 who are educated other than at school
- The team supports children and young people at key transition stages from primary school to secondary school, as well as in relation to further and higher education and employment
- A variety of approaches are offered with 1-1 support
- Staff offer groupwork which may include accredited opportunities such as ASDAN or John Muir award, as well as non-accredited formal groupwork programmes such as the STAR programme (Safety Trust and Respect) and less formal, issue-based group learning opportunities
- Parents and carers can also be offered support and advice

Youth Justice Team

The team works with children and young people aged from 8-17 years. Staff carry out assessments of children which help in making decisions for a range of Out of Court Disposals via Bureau, as well as providing information to courts for sentencing purposes. Staff can also offer support to prevent children from getting into trouble with the Police. The team is responsible for supervising children subject to orders made by the Youth Court as well as custodial sentences. Restorative Justice is central to the work of the team and this underpins support for identified victims within the criminal justice system.

Youth Support Service Response during Covid-19 – Service delivery across all 4 Teams

During the last year, there has been a service-wide emphasis on the identification of vulnerable children and young people so that they can be offered appropriate guidance and support either from the service or via onward referral/signposting. Safeguarding has remained of paramount importance and there has been good partnership working with Social Services, Health and Education.

During the early part of lockdown, a staff skills survey was completed by the Youth Support Service, as well as a record of staff needs/issues that may impact on any service delivery.

Reporting of performance against funding streams has continued as usual, and staff have continued to receive a wide range of training and Continuous Professional Development opportunities to maintain and develop a skilled workforce.

The Service achieved the Youth Work Quality Mark Silver Award (awaiting ministerial sign off) and has signed up to the National Participation Charter which has required commencement of a self-assessment against the National Participation Standards. This represents a very real commitment to improving participation across all aspects of service delivery and will make a significant contribution to the quality of service delivery.

A Youth Justice Contingency Plan and a Youth Justice Recovery Plan were produced in line with Youth Justice Board requirements during 2020. Additionally, the YSS Principal Manager attended a meeting with Estyn Local Authority Link Inspectors to discuss youth work delivery during COVID-19.

The schedule of YSS meetings normally held throughout the year has continued virtually, for example, Management Meetings, team meetings, staff supervision. Managers have also held regular catch-up sessions with teams to offer support and to bolster morale.

Staff were issued with smart phones to be able to be responsive and to make best use of social media and digital platforms when engaging with children and young people.

The service also:

- Supported staffing of the school hubs during lockdowns.
- Offered support to families as and when appropriate.
- Deployed some staff on a part-time basis for food delivery duties across the county.
- Conducted door- step/garden visits for those deemed vulnerable.
- Adapted quickly- with the aid of social media and technology- communication was maintained with children and young people and support was offered remotely. Letters were sent to young people who could not be contacted by these methods.

- Had staff trained in the safe use of social media such as Facebook messenger and Zoom to engage with children and young people.
- Engaged in close working with Children's Services to support the most vulnerable pupils/children.
- Assisted the Education and Children's Services Department to identify young people requiring IT support.
- Committed to joint working between staff across teams and indeed with other partners during the period.

The YSS Principal Manager has participated in County Council, as well as multi-agency recovery groups at a local, regional, and national level.

Youth Work Team Responses (Universal; 10-18 Youth Support and 16-25 Youth Support)

Youth Work Delivery during COVID

- School Based Youth Workers are directly supporting some vulnerable children and schools; they are also working with Heads and pastoral leads to identify children requiring additional contacts.
- Universal Team staff are being used flexibly across the services and are used to bolster additional support as and when required.
- Virtual Education, Training and Employment meetings are held with colleagues across Education and Children Services, alongside Careers Wales, to identify early those young people needing additional support and identified in respect of transition routes to Post 16 Work Based Learning provision.
- During lockdown/recovery, schools were contacted to identify any Year 11 pupils in need of support during the transitional period, working alongside colleagues at Careers Wales, colleges and EOTAS. Identified pupils were referred to the Youth Support Service's Post 16 Team, to establish engagement opportunities.
- The Make Your Mark Ballot was conducted.
- The Period Poverty Project continued for its 3rd year in succession
- Youth Health Worker sessions were delivered virtually– anxiety, stress management, anger management
- Welfare checks and keeping in touch via youth work were conducted – nearly 2,000 children and young person contacts throughout summer 2020.
- As lockdown was eased, outdoor visits were conducted with children and families assessed as highly vulnerable, and in September 2021, all School Based Youth Workers returned to their respective schools for the start of the Autumn term.
- Social distancing and health education messages were re-enforced because of the detached work undertaken. Young people were signposted to YSS social media accounts for further advice and guidance via a QR code and a number were also signposted to specialist services such as housing, substance misuse, domestic abuse etc.

Comments from YSS Youth Health Worker:

'During lockdown, I have made efforts to go far beyond what people might expect of youth work. I have been able to support young people and their families with a list of relevant topics including budgeting/ financial support, housing, and health issues. The significant psychological impacts of social distancing and quarantine measures on young people has caused stress, anxiety, and loneliness. The young people have reported that the lack of direct contact with their friends, family and social connections has been the hardest thing to cope with, and that this has been seriously affecting their mental health and wellbeing. In this context, my greatest concern about the impact of COVID-19 has been mental well-being, employment, income loss, disruptions to education, familial relations, and friendships, as well as a limitation to individual freedoms'

Participation Work

The Participation and Engagement Team, and the YSS Participation Worker continue to support initiatives of the Carmarthenshire Youth Council.

Youth Work Response and Co-operation

Youth Worker comments:

'It has been more important than ever to link with other professionals to safeguard the young people we support. Due to the voluntary relationships, we have with the young people and the trust we have built; I have been successful in keeping constant engagement with the young people when some other services have struggled. It has been vital to work very closely with partner organisations and we have kept in regular contact via online forums to share information on young people who are at risk as well as more formal meetings...It has been important for services for young people to come together seamlessly.'

- YSS staff contribution to Summer programme 2020 for vulnerable pupils in partnership with Children's Services.
- YSS paid for Dr Mz staff member to have 3-day virtual training in Trauma Recovery Model.
- YSS Youth Work Quality Mark Assessor provided support to Dr Mz in their preparation for their entry for the Bronze Quality Mark. YSS Manager took part on assessor interviews.
- Detached work was carried out on a partnership basis with colleagues from CHOICES/BAROD (substance misuse service), young adult carers and Dr Mz all undertaking work with the YSS.
- The partnership between the Youth Support Service and Carmarthenshire YFC continues to strengthen and a pilot project was launched in September 2020, where YFC members will undertake a Junior Leadership Level 2 qualification delivered by Youth Support Service staff. Other areas under development include: - safeguarding training for leaders, youth work qualifications & the accreditation of wider opportunities through the YFC calendar.

- Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) sessions for Young Carers were delivered in the county over summer period.
- The young person's Grant Panel with CAVS was re-established with YSS support.
- YSS assisted with consultations with young people about the impact of COVID on schooling.
- YSS revised SLA's with Dr Mz and Urdd and continues to offer funding support to them.

Dealing with Youth Homelessness during COVID 19

- YSS staff attended Youth Accommodation Panel meetings alongside representatives from Housing, Children's Services, support providers and commissioner from housing support grant.
- YSS representatives attended multi agency meetings for young people.
- YSS staff attended planning meetings for training flats.
- YSS attend review meetings for Llamau provision.
- YSS reps assessed suitability of new Llamau supported lodgings providers.
- YSS supported more than 40 homeless young people directly and indirectly.
- YSS staff advised colleagues and other agencies supporting young people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

New Approaches

- In collaboration with Post -16 colleagues a pilot project has been launched involving the creation and development of wellbeing activity packs. The packs were developed because of feedback from young people struggling with lockdown and the affects it had on their mental, emotional health and wellbeing. These packs have been distributed to young people currently accessing support and feedback is being sought to shape the next phase of the project.
- During the easing of lockdown, appointment only drop-in sessions were organised out of the 3 town centre youth centre sites. This is to be re-instated from 3/5/21.
- As a result of COVID, youth club provision was halted initially, before moving towards delivery of supporting young people online.

Social Media

- In the initial stages of the lockdown period, the service recognised the need to strengthen its social media interface, as a result, we developed our presence on Facebook and set up an Instagram page.
- We have a timetable offering themed days so that there is a consistent message via our social media. We reinforce the #ymaich #hereforyou on most posts.
- School Based Youth Worker contact details are pinned to the top of the page.
- We have mindfulness posts every Monday. To date, we have covered stress management, mental health awareness, suicide awareness, anger management, meditation, breast cancer awareness, learning Welsh week, healthy eating, LGBTQ+ posts, black history month, fearless, water safety, youth accommodation support, bullying, sexual health, back to school week, sports day, COVID-19 related posts (social distancing, handwashing etc), Funky Fridays/tik toks and weekday challenges – which are all about being active.
- We have also covered- Scroll free September, period poverty, plastic free July, national biscuit day, friend's day, National Youth Work Week, Pride month, sun safety, volunteering week, deaf awareness, oral health, quarantine tips, Cam Nesa and Choices (substance misuse service) information.

- Other focus has included- GCSE and A level results support. Post 16 week – youth workers, careers, housing, and training providers all available for live chat.
- Social media has also been used to promote detached work, youth clubs, and competition. Halloween safety, firework safety, world kindness day, handwashing day, anti-bullying week, alcohol awareness week, eating disorders, no smoking day were also included.
- There was particular focus on water safety education and messages because of identified need linked to reports that there were large groups of young people jumping into sea/reservoirs/rivers/harbours etc.

Support offered:

- Support/Advice for schools in establishing LGBTQ+ groups
- LGBTQ – 2 groups running virtually
- Adaptation of Clwb Hwyl (after school club) to virtual delivery for pupils of Heol Goffa.

Training:

- Bespoke training delivered enabling staff to undertake adventurous activities with young people, as well as professional qualifications has taken place.
- Relevant staff have undertaken tutor training with Adult Learning Wales to ensure compliance with the recently updated qualifications.

Youth Engagement and Progression workstream:

- Vulnerability Assessment Profile Meetings under YEPF have been held remotely with Secondary Schools.
- Support into Employment Education and Training Meetings with stakeholders have been held virtually.
- Work based learning providers faced their own challenges as their centres had to close. This led to providers adapting their programmes and course delivery and offering support remotely for young people as well as by telephone. Some young people were offered IT equipment by providers so that they could participate remotely. Positive feedback was received from participants. During the recovery phase, centres have re-opened with appropriate measures in place to ensure the safety of staff and clients.

Youth Justice Team Response

The Youth Justice Team and the Youth Justice Management Board completed a self-assessment against the Youth Justice Board National Standards for Children in the Justice System in March 2020. The judgement of 'outstanding' against each of the 5 standards was ratified by the Youth Justice Board.

Pre-lockdown

Staff worked together to identify the risks and needs profile of the team's caseload to assist in prioritisation the type of contact/support each child needed.

Managers and staff completed a 'Red/ Amber/ Green' status on each Court and Out of Court case using a template which captured Risk of Serious Harm, Safety and Wellbeing concerns or any other need or required response.

The Youth Justice Team quickly adapted to guidance in relation to delivery of Appropriate Adult services at the police station and cooperated with HMCTS to deliver services at the Youth Court.

Bureau and Referral Order Panels have been conducted virtually/by phone. We are in the process of completing necessary arrangements for Bureau to be held on a face-to-face basis in May 2021.

Reparation work was successfully re-opened briefly via Gold Command (during the easing of rules); however, this was suspended in December 2020. To overcome the challenge of not being able to complete outdoor reparation activity, new projects have been developed, for example, the team worked in collaboration with Crimestoppers – Fearless project, to co-create a new resource, which can be used to discuss crime and related issues with children and young people in schools and youth organisations within the county. The resource created --a virtual/ actual playing card discussion pack-- will reflect local concerns that may affect children and young people in our area; generate discussion and promote positive engagement around safer communities, good citizenship, and children's rights. During the year a Reparation Project came runner up in the Hwb Doeth (Excellence Awards).

1:1 reparation work has been recommenced in April 2021

Sharing Insights

The Youth Justice Team, along with one other Welsh YOT was invited to contribute to a virtual seminar, 'Lockdown Lessons in Wales: a youth justice perspective' convened by the Welsh Centre for Crime and Criminal Justice and the University of South Wales.

In Conclusion

In the face of the many challenges encountered during this unprecedented episode, the response of the Youth Support Service has been significant. Managers and staff have shown strong commitment to being flexible and responsive to emerging need and have made a valuable contribution to service delivery in respect of children, young people, and families.

During the period, new and innovative approaches have developed which the service will adopt as standard practice. Currently, the service is working hard to identify key aspects of service delivery that can be safely re-started. Staff have expressed that they are very much looking forward to being able to revert a model of work incorporating elements of face-to-face delivery and direct work. It is recognised that whilst contact via virtual means has a place in modern-day service delivery, children, and young people by now, are experiencing a degree of 'virtual fatigue' and they would prefer blended approaches to meet their individual needs.

Current funding arrangements and various grant criteria require the Youth Support Service to provide a targeted youth support response across teams. This requires the development of different skill sets to effectively discharge a range of responsibilities. It is significant to note that youth work is undergoing a period of significant change in line with the WG Youth Work Strategy which recommends the following:

- a national body to take responsibility for a programme of change with a regional partnership approach to inform and develop local delivery.
- the development of a new funding model
- an innovation and outcomes framework for youth work, and
- a new digital youth work offer to young people in Wales encompassing the establishment of a youth information service and youth entitlement card.

Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Probation have commenced their programme of Youth Offending Team inspections, and it is anticipated that the Youth Justice Team will be in line for inspection anytime within the next year or so. Therefore, work is being carried out to ensure that the Youth Justice Management Board and the Youth Justice Team self-assess against HMIP Inspection Standards in readiness.

The YSS Principal Manager is in the process of drawing up the YSS Business Plan which will include a focus upon the Youth Justice Plan for 2021/22, as well as an overview of the YSS during past year, as well as future planning.

Executive Summary
Education & Children Scrutiny Committee
11th June 2021

To provide a report on the progress of Carmarthenshire's ALN
Transformation Action Plan

The ALN system is the new statutory support system for children and young people aged 0 to 25 in Wales with ALN that is due to come into force in September 2021.

The legislative framework of the new system is created by the Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Act 2018 ('the Act'), the ALN Code for Wales and regulations made under the Act. Through this statutory framework the Welsh Government aims to ensure that all learners with ALN are supported to overcome barriers to learning and can achieve their full potential, by creating:

- a unified legislative framework to support all children of compulsory school age or below with additional learning needs (ALN) and to support young people with ALN who are in school or further education (FE);
- an integrated, collaborative process of assessment, planning and monitoring of the support provided to ALN learners which facilitates early, timely and effective interventions; and
- a fair and transparent system for providing information and advice, and for resolving concerns and appeals.

The purpose of this document is to outline how the local authority is supporting schools with their planning in the implementation of the Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Act (ALNET).

ALN is everybody's business, and it is important that all stakeholders are involved in the planning of ALN transformation. Each school should ensure that what is in place is appropriate for them and, more importantly, the learners within the school.

Additional learning needs (ALN) transformation programme

What's changing?

We want to transform expectations, experiences and outcomes for children and young people with additional learning needs (ALN).

To do so, we have developed the ALN transformation programme, which transforms the separate systems for special educational needs (SEN) in schools and learning difficulties and/or disabilities (LDD) in further education, to create a unified system for supporting learners from 0 to 25 with ALN.

The transformed system will:

- ensure that all learners with ALN are supported to overcome barriers to learning and achieve their full potential
- improve the planning and delivery of support for learners from 0 to 25 with ALN, placing learners' needs, views, wishes and feelings at the heart of the process
- focus on the importance of identifying needs early and putting in place timely and effective interventions which are monitored and adapted to ensure they deliver the desired outcomes.

New legislation and statutory guidance is only one aspect, albeit a fundamental one, of the wider package of reforms needed. The ALN transformation programme also focuses on skills development for the education workforce, to deliver effective support to learners with ALN in the classroom, as well as easier access to specialist support, information and advice.

Why it's changing

We are determined to deliver a fully inclusive education system for learners in Wales. A system where needs are identified early and addressed quickly, and where all learners are supported to reach their potential.

Around 22 per cent of all learners at maintained schools in Wales have SEN. Overall the academic attainment of learners with SEN is poor compared to the rest of the learner population.

Under the new system, planning will be flexible and responsive, our professionals will be skilled and confident in identifying needs and deploying strategies to help learners overcome their barriers to learning, and the learner will be at the centre of everything we do.

How it's changing

In order to effectively implement, support transition and deliver the new system, the ALN transformation programme will be delivered through the following five themes.

1. Legislation and statutory guidance

The Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Bill was passed by the National Assembly for Wales on 12 December 2017 and became an Act on 24 January 2018 after receiving Royal Assent. This will create the legislative framework to improve the planning and delivery of additional learning provision, through a person-centred approach to identifying needs early, putting in place effective support and monitoring, and adapting interventions to ensure they deliver desired outcomes.

The Act will be supported by:

- regulations – secondary legislation where further detail is required
- an ALN Code – statutory guidance and mandatory requirements to help people and organisations work within the law.

The 11 aims of the Act

1. The introduction of the term 'additional learning needs (ALN)'
The Act replaces the terms 'special educational needs (SEN)' and 'learning difficulties and/or disabilities (LDD)' with the new term 'additional learning needs (ALN)'.

2. A 0 to 25 age range
There will be a single legislative system relating to the support given to children and young people aged between 0 to 25 years who have ALN. This is instead of the two separate systems currently operating to support children and young people of compulsory school age who have SEN, and young people in further education who have LDD.

3. A unified plan
The Act creates a single statutory plan (the individual development plan (IDP)) to replace the existing variety of statutory and non-statutory SEN or LDD plans for learners in schools and further education.

4. Increased participation of children and young people
The Act requires that learners' views should always be considered as part of the planning process, along with those of their parents/carers. It is imperative that children and young people see the planning process as something which is done with them rather than to them.

5. High aspirations and improved outcomes
The emphasis of IDPs will be on making provision that delivers tangible outcomes that contribute in a meaningful way to the child or young person's achievement of their full potential.

6. A simpler and less adversarial system
The process of producing and revising an IDP should be much simpler than is currently the case with statements of SEN.

7. Increased collaboration
The new system encourages improved collaboration and information sharing between agencies, which are essential to ensuring that needs are identified early and the right support is put in place to enable children and young people to achieve positive outcomes.

8. Avoiding disagreements and earlier disagreement resolution

The new system focuses on ensuring that where disagreements occur about an IDP or the provision it contains, the matter is considered and resolved at the most local level possible.

9. Clear and consistent rights of appeal

Where disagreements about the contents of an IDP cannot be resolved at the local level, the Act ensures that children and young people entitled to an IDP (and their parents/carers in the case of those that are under 16 years) have a right of appeal to a tribunal.

10. The ALN Code

The ALN Code will provide a set of clear, legally enforceable parameters within which local authorities and those other organisations responsible for the delivery of services for children and young people with ALN, must act.

11. A bilingual system

The Act requires that services must consider whether a child or young person needs additional learning provision in Welsh. If they do, this must be documented in the IDP and 'all reasonable steps' must be taken to secure the provision in Welsh.

2. Workforce development

This is a programme of skills development for education practitioners focused at three levels.

- Core skills development for all practitioners to deliver the new ALN system. This includes the roll-out of person-centred practice, which is a central aspect of our new approach, across all education settings/schools. We provided a two-year funding grant to local authorities and further education institutions (FEIs) for developing person-centred practice skills across the workforce.
- Advanced skills development through the development of the role of additional learning needs coordinators (ALNCos), who will replace current special educational needs coordinators (SENCOs).
- Specialist skills development through funding to support post-graduate training for local authority-provided specialist support services available to education settings/schools, e.g. educational psychologists and teachers of the visually or hearing impaired.

3. Implementation/transition support

To ensure successful and consistent implementation of the new system, we have been helping services to prepare for the changes ahead and to develop closer multi-agency and cross-sector working practices, including the following.

Delivered

- ALN Innovation Funding: for regional partnership projects between local authorities; schools; FEIs; specialist providers; health services; social services; the early years sector; and the third sector.
- ALN Strategic Implementation Group: a joint working group between Welsh Government and local authorities, local health boards and the further education sector. The group considered practical solutions and provided advice and recommendations to the Welsh Government to support implementation of the ALN transformation programme.

In progress

- Readiness, compliance, and impact monitoring and evaluation: to ensure that implementation of the Act is monitored closely, that issues are effectively addressed for the benefit of children and young people, and that best practice is being identified and shared across Wales. The approach will consider implementation in stages.
 - Readiness: assessing the extent to which local authorities and other delivery agents are prepared for the changes ahead.
 - Compliance: how effectively they are complying with the new legislative requirements once they take effect.
 - Impact: how and the extent to which the changes are embedding and making an impact on outcomes for learners.
- ALN Transformation Leads: a team of five transformation leads who provide advice, support and challenge to local authorities, FEIs and other delivery partners in preparing for and managing transition to the new ALN system.
- ALN Transformation Grants: funding to support delivery partners (including local authorities, FEIs, local health boards, the Tribunal and Estyn) to prepare for transition to the new system.
- ALN Implementation Guide: a detailed implementation guide to explain the timescales for roll-out of IDPs to each cohort of learners in the phased approach, information on post-16 learners, and learners in specific circumstances.

4. Awareness raising

- Interactive materials to help all those in the system understand the evidence for best practice, what can be expected from interventions, the interventions that are likely to be most effective, and the role of professionals to help ensure realistic expectations and effective deployment of resources.
- Awareness-raising activities in preparation for implementation of the transformed system, focusing on engaging stakeholders about their new legislative duties, and explaining and promoting the system and the rights it confers to children, their parents/carers and young people.

5. Supporting policy

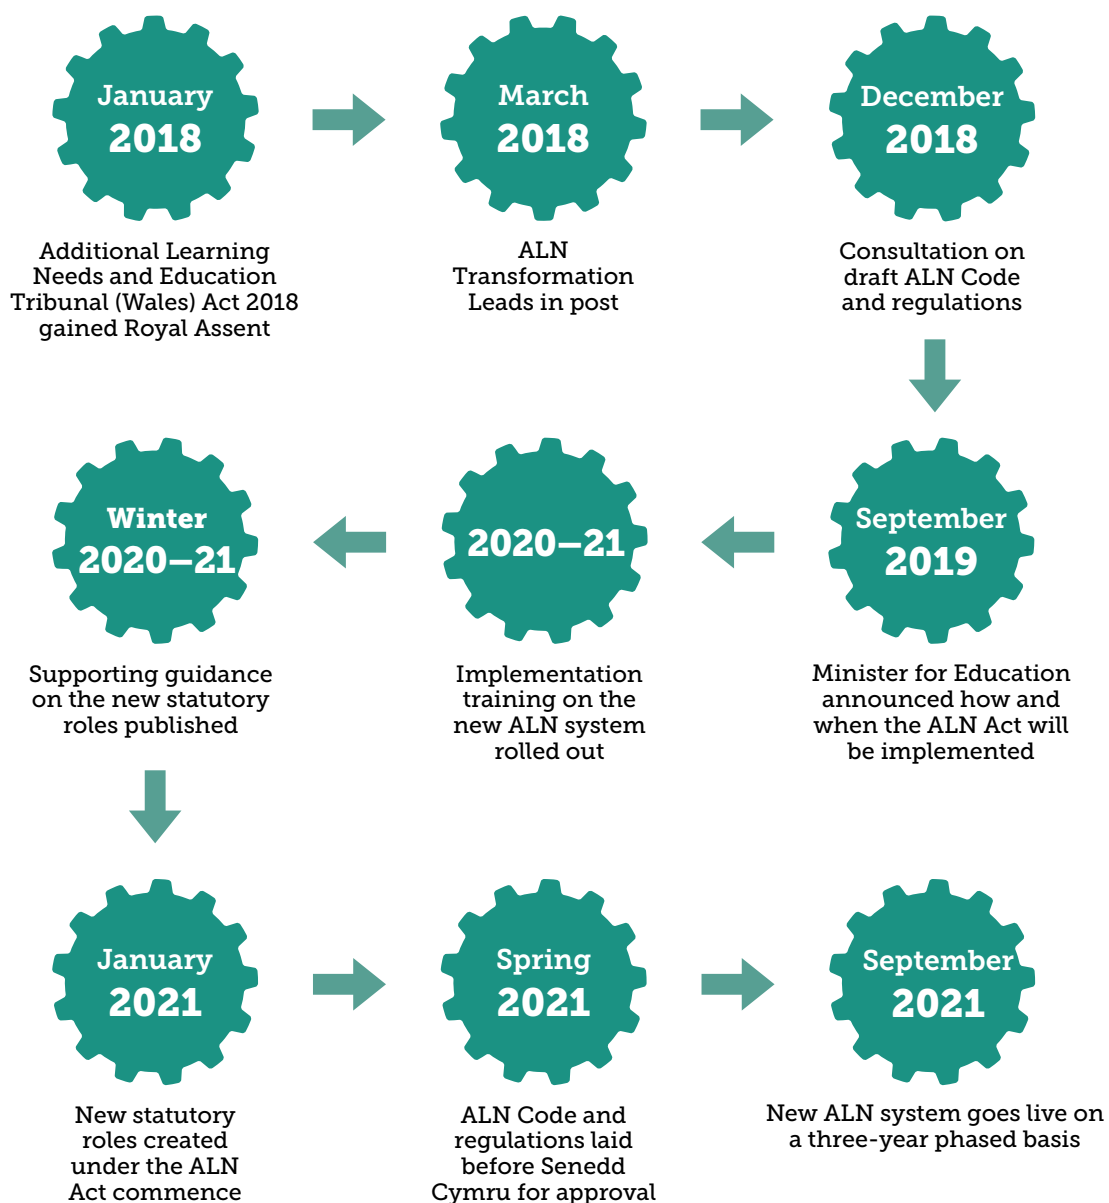

- As we move into the implementation phase, we will continue to ensure the existing special educational needs (SEN) and learning difficulties and/or disabilities (LDD) system operates smoothly until the new ALN system comes into effect.
- Local authorities and all those who work with children and young people with SEN must ensure that they continue to comply with the duties placed upon them by the Education Act 1996. They must also continue to have regard to the Special Educational Needs Code of Practice for Wales (2004) (gov.wales/special-educational-needs-code-practice)

When it's changing

In 2018, the draft ALN Code and regulations which support the Act were consulted on. The Welsh Government intends to lay the Code and regulations before Senedd Cymru for approval in spring 2021. To accompany the commencement of the statutory roles in January 2021, regulations will be laid in relation to the ALNCo role, together with guidance on all three statutory roles created under the Act. The guidance will include text from the aspects of the Code related to these roles and will clarify their responsibilities. The guidance and regulations will be informed by the responses to the consultation on the draft ALN Code and the ALNCo role regulations.

Implementation training will be rolled out in 2020 and 2021, and the new ALN system is expected to go live in September 2021. The implementation period will last three years until summer 2024, during which time existing statements of SEN, individual education plans, and learning and skills plans will be converted into individual development plans (IDPs). This will be done in a mandatory phased approach on the basis of particular age-based cohorts. During this time, the ALN system will operate in parallel to the SEN system.

Implementation

The new system

1. What is the new additional learning needs (ALN) system?

The ALN system is the new statutory support system for children and young people aged 0 to 25 in Wales with ALN that is due to come into force in September 2021.

The legislative framework of the new system is created by the Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Act 2018 ('the Act'), the ALN Code for Wales and regulations made under the Act. Through this statutory framework the Welsh Government aims to ensure that all learners with ALN are supported to overcome barriers to learning and can achieve their full potential, by creating:

- a unified legislative framework to support all children of compulsory school age or below with additional learning needs (ALN) and to support young people with ALN who are in school or further education (FE);
- an integrated, collaborative process of assessment, planning and monitoring of the support provided to ALN learners which facilitates early, timely and effective interventions; and
- a fair and transparent system for providing information and advice, and for resolving concerns and appeals.

The Act replaces the terms ‘special educational needs (SEN)’ and ‘learning difficulties and/or disabilities (LDD)’ with the new term ‘additional learning needs (ALN)’. All children and young people with ALN regardless of the severity or complexity of their learning difficulty or disability will be entitled to a statutory support plan called an ‘Individual Development Plan’ (IDP). Children and young people with ALN will receive support called additional learning provision (ALP) which will be set out in their IDP.

2. What is ALN?

A learner has ALN if he or she has a learning difficulty or disability which calls for additional learning provision (ALP).

A child of compulsory school age or person over that age has a learning difficulty or disability if he or she:

- a. has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or
- b. has a disability for the purposes of the Equality Act 2010 which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of facilities for education or training of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream maintained schools or mainstream institutions in the further education sector.

A child under compulsory school age has a learning difficulty or disability if he or she is likely to (or would be likely to if no ALP were made) have significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of their peers when they reach compulsory school age.

ALP for a learner aged over 3 years means educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for others of the same age in a mainstream school, FEI or nursery education setting in Wales.

For those under 3 years old it means educational provision of any kind.

It is possible for a child or young person to have a learning difficulty or disability that does not call for ALP. In these instances such a child or young person would not be considered to have ALN. Further it is important to note that not all learning difficulties or disabilities that arise from a medical condition will call for additional learning provision.

One of the principles of the draft ALN Code is inclusive education where children and young people are supported to participate fully in mainstream education, wherever feasible, and a whole setting approach is taken to meet the needs of learners with ALN. Where settings adopt a fully inclusive approach combined with universal learning provision that meets a broad range of learning needs, this can help to negate the need for ALP. The draft ALN Code provides guidance on the process for assessing and deciding whether a child or young person has ALN.

IDPs

3. Who will be entitled to an IDP?

The ALN Act creates a single legislative system for supporting children and young people aged between 0 to 25 years who have ALN. This is instead of the two separate systems currently operating to support children and young people of compulsory school age who have SEN, and young people in further education who have LDD.

The new system replaces existing support plans (including Statements of SEN, individual education plans (IEPs) for learners on school action/ school action plus and Learning and Skills Plans for post-16 learners) with a new statutory plan called an Individual Development Plan (IDP). If it is decided that a child in Wales, of compulsory school age and below, has ALN, they will be entitled to an IDP, no matter where they are educated.

However, the Act does not give young persons with ALN a right to continuous education up to the age of 25. Rather, it is about providing access to further education or training on an equitable basis to young people who do not have ALN.

If a young person has ALN and attends a maintained school or FEI, they will always be entitled to an IDP. However, where a young person with ALN is not attending an FEI or maintained school, a local authority will need to decide, in accordance with regulations to be made under the Act, whether it is necessary to maintain an IDP for them.

It is intended that the regulations will set out matters that are relevant when a local authority is considering what, if any, reasonable needs for education or training the young person has. They will also deal with when it is necessary for the local authority to prepare and maintain an IDP for a young person who has a reasonable need for education or training. Chapter 12 of the draft ALN Code reflect what we intend to provide for in these regulations.

The Act does not extend to higher education, work-based learning or apprenticeships. The Welsh Government believes that it would not be appropriate to place duties on employers. If however a learner undertaking work-based learning or an apprenticeship is enrolled as a student at an FEI, the duties on the FEI apply. Also, if the young person agrees for the IDP to transfer with them to their higher education institution, work-based learning provider or apprenticeship it can be used for transition and to support planning. We are continuing to work with colleagues responsible for apprenticeships and work-based learning to identify the different scenarios and suggest best practice for dealing with them in the Code.

We believe effective use of contractual arrangements is the better way of protecting and promoting the interests of learners with ALN within the work based learning sector.

4. How long does it take to prepare an IDP?

The time taken to prepare an IDP will depend on the nature and scope of a child or young person's needs. Preparing a concise IDP for a child or young person with less severe or complex needs should be a relatively simple and quick process. Such IDPs should form a large majority of those that are prepared. An IDP for a child or young person with severe, complex or low incidence needs is likely to require specialist input and advice and detail a much wider range of interventions. This will necessarily require greater time and effort to prepare but should only be required in a minority of cases.

The draft ALN Code proposes that a school must prepare an IDP promptly, and in any event within 35 schools days from, in the case of a pupil who is a child, it being brought to the attention of or otherwise appearing to the school that person may have ALN, or, in the case of a pupil who is a young person, the pupil consenting to the decision being made. The equivalent period in the case of a local authority is 12 weeks (or seven weeks where the local authority is reconsidering a school's decision about whether a child or young person has ALN).

Under the current SEN system, the process of statutory assessment and issuing a statement can take up to 26 weeks. The proposed timescales for IDPs should help ensure that no child or young person with ALN goes for much longer than a whole school term without an IDP being put in place (a school term normally lasting about 13 weeks).

5. What is an IDP and how does it differ to a Statement?

An IDP is a statutory plan maintained by a school, FEI or local authority that sets out a description of a child or young person's ALN, the additional learning provision (ALP) called for by their learning difficulty or disability, and other associated information.

Unlike a statement of SEN, IDPs will be provided to children and young people with ALN irrespective of the severity or complexity of their needs. The statutory status of the IDP will be the same irrespective of the child or young person's needs, with the same rights of appeal to the Education Tribunal for Wales for anyone with an IDP.

The IDP is intended to be a flexible document that will vary in length and complexity depending on the different needs of learners and the way in which an individual learner's needs develop and change over time.

6. How different is this Act to the one in England?

In England, the Children and Families Act 2014 reformed the SEN system and introduced new statutory plans called 'Education Health and Care Plans' (EHCPs) – however, these are only for learners with severe and complex needs (i.e. equivalent to Statements). In Wales, the ALN system will extend rights to statutory plans to all learners with ALN, not limited to only those with the most severe or complex needs.

7. What role do children, their parents, and young people have in the process of identifying and supporting ALN in the new system?

The new system puts the learner at the heart of everything that happens and we expect schools, FEIs and local authorities to take a person-centred approach to planning for and supporting children and young people.

The Act requires that the views, wishes and feelings of children, their parents and young people are considered at all stages of the IDP process. The proposed mandatory IDP template will include a one-page profile to ensure that IDPs reflect the child's or young person's needs and personality, including what is important to and for them.

8. Who is responsible for preparing, maintaining and reviewing IDPs and for identifying ALN?

ALN will be identified, and IDPs will be prepared and maintained, by either a school, FEI or local authority, depending on which educational institution a child or young person attends and the severity or complexity of their needs.

Maintaining an IDP means, securing the additional learning provision included in it, and reviewing the IDP as and when required to ensure the information in it, and the provision it describes, remains appropriate.

In the case of children or young people who are not a pupil at a maintained school or enrolled as a student at an FEI, or where they are a child looked after by a Welsh local authority, it will always be the local authority that maintains the IDP. This includes maintaining IDPs for children under compulsory school age if they are not attending a maintained school setting or young people attending an independent specialist post-16 institution.

9. Will there be a mandatory national IDP template?

The Act requires that the ALN Code includes one or more standard forms of IDP and requires governing bodies and local authorities to use this form or forms. The form's style may be adapted to suit local preferences or those of the child or young person.

All IDPs will contain certain key elements and have the same basic structure. This will ensure broad consistency and equality in terms of the way that learners are treated and will underpin the cohesion of the ALN system as a whole and the portability of individual plans.

The draft Code provides two mandatory IDP forms, one for use in the case of children who are not looked after by a local authority, and all young people; and another for use in the case of children who are looked after by a local authority. The headings and order of the mandatory forms reflect the detailed mandatory IDP content set out in Chapter 13 and 14 of the draft ALN Code.

10. What is the difference between a local authority-maintained IDP and a school-maintained IDP?

An IDP maintained by a school and that maintained by a local authority will have exactly the same statutory standing. Whichever body prepares and maintains the IDP must ensure that the IDP describes the child or young person's ALN and the ALP that is called for by their ALN, and must then secure that ALP.

Local authorities rather than schools will maintain IDPs where the child or young person has ALN that calls for ALP it would not be reasonable for the governing body to secure.

Chapter 9 of the draft ALN Code provides clarity on when a school should refer a pupil to a local authority for it to decide whether the pupil has ALN and to decide whether the local authority or the school should have responsibility for maintaining an IDP. It provides guidance to local authorities on how they should determine whether it is reasonable for a school or the local authority to secure the ALP required by a child or young person. It also sets out that the local authority should establish a set of principles they will apply when determining whether it is reasonable for a school to secure the ALP or whether the local authority ought to do so.

Welsh Language

11. How will the Act help to create a bilingual system for supporting children and young people with ALN across Wales?

One of the core aims of the Act is to create a bilingual system of support for ALN. Services will be required to consider whether a child or young person needs ALP in Welsh; this duty will be an ongoing one, rather than a one-off decision. If they do, this must be documented in the IDP and all reasonable steps must be taken to secure the provision in Welsh. A mechanism is included in the Act to remove by regulations the 'all reasonable steps' test, so that the duties to provide ALP through the medium of Welsh become absolute over time.

A series of strategic duties are also aimed at driving progress towards a bilingual ALN system. In particular, when reviewing their arrangements for ALN, and the extent to which those arrangements are sufficient to meet the needs of children and young people, local authorities will be required to consider the sufficiency of ALP made in Welsh. If a local authority considers that the arrangements are not sufficient, including the availability of ALP in Welsh, it must take all reasonable steps to remedy the matter.

In doing so, local authorities should link their review of ALP with wider strategic duties including those under the School Standards and Organisation (Wales) Act 2013, which requires them to draft, consult on and publish Welsh in Education Strategic Plans (WESPs) demonstrating how they will aim to achieve the outcomes and targets for Welsh-medium provision in their area, including for learners with ALN.

Key roles

12. What is the Additional Learning Needs Co-ordinator (ALNCo) role and how does this differ to existing SENCos?

The ALNCo is a statutory role which will replace the existing non-statutory SENCo role that exists in most maintained schools in Wales and similar non-statutory roles that are undertaken in FEIs in Wales.

Section 60 of the Act requires FEIs and mainstream maintained schools, including maintained nurseries and pupil referral units to have a designated ALNCo. However this excludes maintained special schools where every staff member will have a focus on ALN.

The ALNCo is the individual who at a strategic level within a school or FEI ensures the needs of all learners with ALN within the education setting are met. The role is a strategic one within the education setting and should therefore, either form part of the senior leadership team or have a clear line of communication to the senior leadership team. This will support the setting to plan, manage and deliver its duties and responsibilities in identifying and meeting the needs of children and young people with ALN.

The draft Additional Learning Needs Co-ordinator (Wales) Regulations 2019 prescribe the qualifications and experience required to be an ALNCo and the functions placed upon ALNCos.

13. What is the Designated Educational Clinical Lead Officer (DECLO) role?

The ALN Act places a duty on all local health boards to designate an officer to have responsibility for co-ordinating the health board's functions in relation to children and young people with ALN. That person is known as the Designated Education Clinical Lead Officer (DECLO).

The DECLO must either be a registered medical practitioner or a registered nurse or another health professional. The Local Health Board must only designate an officer as a DECLO it considers to be suitably qualified and experienced in the provision of health care for children and young people with ALN.

Chapter 15 of the draft Code sets out the proposed role of the DECLO, including:

- operating strategically to promote awareness of ALN at executive level within the Local Health Board and promote new ways of working;
- sharing best practice with the other DECLOs to help ensure standardised approaches across Wales;
- promoting a consistent strategic approach within the Local Health Board to the identification and assessment of ALN, the preparation and review of IDPs, the planning and delivery of ALP and the monitoring the effect of it on children and young persons;
- managing and monitoring compliance with Local Health Board duties under the Act, and measuring the success of the Local Health Board's interventions.

14. What is the Early Years ALN Lead Officer (ALNLO) role?

The 2018 Act requires each local authority to designate an Early Years ALNLO, who will have responsibility for co-ordinating the local authority's functions under the Act in relation to children under compulsory school age who are not attending maintained schools.

The role of the Early Years ALNLO is intended to be a strategic one. Responsibilities within the role are expected to include establishing effective collaborative working practices and arrangements with others who work with children below compulsory school age; raising awareness of the ALN system and how it applies to children under compulsory school age; promoting early identification and prevention of ALN; and other strategic responsibilities.

Chapter 8 of the draft ALN Code provides further detail on the expectations of the Early Years ALNLO.

Disagreement resolution and appeals

15. What happens if a child, parent or young person disagrees with a decision about ALN by a school, local authority or FEI?

In the first instance, the child, their parent or young person should ask for the matter to be reconsidered by the body that made the decision.

If a school is dealing with the request to reconsider the matter and the child, parent or young person concerned is unhappy with the decision following the reconsideration, they can refer the matter to the local authority.

If the child, parent or young person concerned is unhappy with a local authority's or FEI's decision, they can make an appeal to the Education Tribunal for Wales ('the Tribunal').

The child, their parent or the young person will be able to use the local authority's dispute resolution arrangements. These arrangements will attempt to resolve disagreements outside of Tribunal proceedings. Using these arrangements is not compulsory and does not affect a child's, their parent's or young person's right to take an appeal to the Tribunal. However, the Welsh Government wishes to encourage use of these arrangements, as they will generally reduce the need to take a dispute to the Tribunal and lead to quicker resolution of disagreements, which would minimise disruption to the child's or young person's learning and save significant time and money for the parties involved.

In addition, the 2018 Act places requirements on local authorities to make arrangements for the provision for independent advocacy services for children and young people where they might disagree with a decision.

Chapter 7 of the draft ALN Code sets out guidance and requirements relating to the duties on local authorities to make arrangements for avoiding and resolving disagreements and for the provision of independent advocacy services.

16. What is the remit of the Education Tribunal?

The 2018 Act renames the Special Educational Needs Tribunal for Wales ('SENTW') the Education Tribunal for Wales ('the Tribunal'). The Tribunal will hear and decide appeals and applications in relation to children and young people who have or may have ALN. Specifically, it will hear and decide appeals about the decisions of a governing body of a further education institution ('FEI') or a local authority in Wales. It will also hear disability discrimination claims in relation to schools.

The Tribunal will be able to make decisions about a child's ability to understand matters relating to the ALN system, including what it means to bring an appeal to the Tribunal. Where it declares that a child lacks such capacity to understand, the Tribunal will be able to appoint a case friend upon application for that child.

The Tribunal will be independent of government, local authorities, schools and FEIs; and its decisions are legally binding on local authorities and FEIs.

It will also be able to require an NHS body to provide evidence regarding health related aspects of an appeal and can make recommendations to an NHS body about the exercise of its functions under the Act. If the Tribunal makes a recommendation to an NHS body, that body must report back to the Tribunal stating the action it has taken or proposes to take in response to the Tribunal's recommendation; or why it has not taken and does not propose to take any action in response to the recommendation.

Regulations to be made under the Act will set out the provision of and procedure for appeals and claims to the Tribunal (draft Education Tribunal for Wales Regulations were previously published for consultation) and Chapter 26 of the draft ALN Code provides information about appeals and applications to the Tribunal.

Children and young people in particular circumstances

17. How will the system apply to children who are looked after by a local authority?

Children of compulsory school age or below living in Wales who have ALN and who are looked after by a Welsh local authority, will have an IDP maintained by that authority. The IDP will be incorporated in to the child's personal education plan (PEP). The PEP forms part of the child's care and support plan.

A child with ALN, looked after by a local authority in England but attending a maintained school in Wales, will normally have an IDP maintained for them by the school unless the English authority is maintaining an Education, Health and Care Plan for them.

A child who is looked after by a local authority will only have an IDP if they have ALN. They will not have an IDP simply because they are looked after by the local authority.

A child looked after by a Welsh local authority but living in England would come under the English special educational needs and disability system.

The definition of a looked after child for the purposes of the Social Services and Well-being Act 2014 includes young people over compulsory school age and others who would not be treated as looked after children for the purpose of the ALN Act and Code.

18. How does the Act apply to children who are educated otherwise than at school (EOTAS)?

In most cases, EOTAS learners will be the responsibility of the local authority who will be under a duty, where appropriate, to decide if the child or has ALN and if they have, to prepare and maintain an IDP for them.

In the case of pupils at pupil referral units (PRU), the duties in the 2018 Act placed on governing bodies of schools would be for the local authority to discharge. However, the Welsh Ministers are proposing to make regulations requiring a local authority to delegate to the management committee of a PRU it maintains, the functions under the 2018 Act given to governing bodies of schools. These duties would include duties to decide if a registered pupil has ALN and the duties to prepare, maintain, review and cease to maintain plans.

19. How does the Act apply to children and young people at independent schools?

If a local authority places a child or young person with ALN at an independent school for the purposes of receiving specialist ALP the local authority would continue to maintain the IDP. Where it is brought to the attention or otherwise appears to a local authority that a child attending an independent school may have ALN it would be for the local authority to determine whether they have ALN and prepare and maintain an IDP for them if they do. In the case of a young person in the same circumstances the local authority would need to decide whether or not, in accordance with regulations, it was necessary to maintain an IDP to meet their reasonable needs for education and training.

Post-16 specialist placements

20. How will the new system work with regards to post-16 specialist placements?

Local authorities will be responsible for securing education and training for young people who require specialist provision at independent specialist post-16 institutions (ISPIs). This duty currently rests with Welsh Ministers under the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (“the 2000 Act”) but responsibility will transfer to local authorities upon implementation of the ALNET Act 2018.

Under the current system, Welsh Ministers approve approximately 100 new applications a year for programmes of study offered by independent specialist post-16 establishments. Around 300 specialist placements are funded at any given time.

Under the new system, local authorities will consider the needs of young people with complex needs in accordance with their duties to maintain individual development plans (IDPs) for those for whom it is necessary in accordance with regulations to be made under the Act.

The needs of young people will not be directly affected by the implementation of the Act. Therefore there is no reason for an increase in number of post-16 learners with severe and complex needs requiring access to specialist provision.

Careers Wales will continue to provide independent careers advice to all young people regardless of their needs and this will include advising young people with ALN on potential post-16 options. However, their current role in undertaking assessments of individuals needs (s140 of the 2000 Act) on behalf of Welsh Ministers will no longer be required.

The new system will mean that decisions regarding suitable educational provision for young people with complex needs will be taken locally by people who will usually have been involved in supporting the young person for their entire education. Local authorities will be familiar with the needs of the young people in the system and can plan years in advance for their transition to post-16 education. This will also encourage and enable local authorities and post-16 providers (both mainstream and independent) to work together to plan for and develop the future provision required to meet local needs.

For those young people who have secured a placement at an independent post-16 specialist establishment prior to the responsibility transferring to local authorities, they will remain with their provider for the duration of their existing agreed programme of study.

21. How will the funding for specialist post-16 placements be allocated to local authorities?

In transferring responsibility for securing specialist post-16 placements to local authorities, the Welsh Government will also be transferring funding to support local authorities to deliver this duty.

The Welsh Government is in continued discussions with the Distribution Sub Group on an agreed settlement and allocation of this funding across local authorities. At this time, it is not proposed for funding to be ring fenced. Instead it is likely to form part of the revenue support grant that is allocated to local authorities to provide them the flexibility to discharge a range of duties in accordance with local needs.

As is the case with Welsh Government under the current system, local authorities will wish to consider engagement with other agencies such as social service departments and local health boards on arrangements for securing joint funding of specialist placements in cases where social care provision is identified to support a learner's educational placement.

Implementation

22. When and how will the new ALN system go live?

The Welsh Government intends to lay the Code and regulations before the Senedd Cymru for approval in spring 2021.

To accompany the commencement of the statutory roles in January 2021, Regulations will be laid in relation to the ALN Co-ordinator role, together with guidance on all three statutory roles. The guidance will include text from the aspects of the Code related to these roles and will clarify their responsibilities. The guidance and regulations will be informed by the responses to the consultation on the draft ALN Code and the ALNCo role regulations.

Implementation training will be rolled out in 2020 and 2021 and the new system is expected to go live in September 2021. The implementation period will last three years until summer 2024, during which time existing Statements of SEN, Individual Education Plans and Learning and Skills Plans will be converted to IDPs. This will be done in a mandatory phased approach on the basis of particular aged-based cohorts. During this time, the ALN system will operate in parallel to the SEN system which will gradually be phased out during the implementation period.

For the time being, local authorities and all those who work with children and young people with SEN, must ensure that they continue to comply with the duties placed upon them by the Education Act 1996. They must also continue to have regard to the SEN Code of Practice for Wales (2004).

An ALN Implementation Guide has been published that explains the timescales for the roll-out of IDPs to each cohort of learners in the phased approach. It is the first in a series of guides about how the Act is to be implemented, with subsequent guides relating to post-16 learners and those in specific circumstances due to be published in due course.

23. How is the Welsh Government supporting delivery partners to prepare for and manage transition to the new ALN system?

A £20m package of funding is being used to support implementation of the Act and delivery of the wider ALN Transformation Programme.

A large part of this funding will be used to develop the workforce so that all partners understand and are prepared for the changes being introduced. This includes workforce development to help build capacity and ensure practitioners have the skills to effectively operate the new system in order to meet learners' needs.

We are targeting workforce development at three levels; core skills development for all practitioners, advanced skills development through the establishment of the role of Additional Learning Needs Coordinators (ALNCos), which will replace the current SENCo role; and specialist skills development for local authority provided specialist support services available to education settings.

Five ALN transformation leads have been in post since April 2018. Their role is to provide advice, support and challenge to local authorities, schools, early years settings and further education institutions, as they prepare for implementation of the reforms. This includes through readiness self-assessments and the development of local implementation plans. The ALN transformation leads will be responsible for rolling out implementation training on a multi-agency regional basis from 2021.

24. Will the new ALN system cost more to operate than the existing SEN system?

The introduction of the new ALN system will not add to the number of learners who are supported currently. The new system places increased emphasis on working with learners and their families, and all agencies involved will be expected to plan in a person centred way. The schools and authorities that have adopted aspects of the new system have done so within existing budgets and tell us that the changes they have made are enabling them to make better, evidence-based decisions; reducing the potential for conflict; and lead ultimately to improvements in the quality of provision.

Carmarthenshire : Inclusion Department

Area	Description	Activity	Outcomes/Progress to Date
A summary of activity undertaken in 2020/21.	This relates back to our Local Implementation Plan and reflects progress.	Provision Mapping Tool – we have developed a regional provision mapping tool which will allow all Carmarthenshire schools to record, monitor and evaluate both universal and additional learning provisions for learners within the new ALN system. PCP Awareness/ALN Reform Training – Inclusion Officers have developed a regional training resource for PCP Awareness/ALN Reform which has been delivered to CCC's schools – headteachers and ALNCOs, LA Officers in Education and Social Care and to a wide audience of outside agencies including LHB staff. Outcome Training – Playlist: Inclusion Officers have developed training resources for developing quality outcomes which can be delivered to schools, LA and health professionals. Decision Making Process: A regional model has been developed which ensures that “person-centred practice” is integral to the ALN system and the process of making key decisions regarding provisions to meet a pupil's needs.	Pilot completed with 6 schools across Carmarthenshire and Ceredigion. Feedback shared with Teacher Centre developers in preparation for refinement of the tool in line with the new ALN Code. Pilot schools are now trialling the updated version. The electronic provision mapping tool is being showcased to Headteachers/ALNCOs. Subsequently rolled out to all schools - training required. PowerPoint has been completed and shared to the regional training group. This has been rolled out across local authorities and their partner agencies. English version of a playlist and supporting activities have been developed and rolled out to schools and LHB staff. Awaiting Welsh translation. A supplementary draft guidance document on ‘How to Write Quality SMART Outcomes’ has been developed and shared with schools in Carmarthenshire. Once feedback has been received it will be edited and shared regionally. Task and Finish group led by Carmarthenshire has developed a regional model shared that is being rolled out across the region. An ‘Expectations and Principles’ draft guidance document for maintained schools has been produced based on both the regional work and the draft ALN Code. This document is being updated to reflect the changes in the final code and then shared regionally for feedback. Once feedback has been received it will be edited for final release and shared with Carmarthenshire's schools. It will form the basis for an Inclusion Handbook for schools updated to reflect the new ALN system.

Page 54		Regional IDP Template	Regional IDP template completed and trialled based on the draft ALN Code. Reference needs to be made to the final code to ensure it still meets the statutory requirements.
		IDP Platform	Representatives from Carmarthenshire have attended every WG expert group and contributed to the development of the IDP platform expectations document. Carmarthenshire has commissioned Teacher Centre in partnership with Ceredigion to scope out the development of an IDP platform and to meet the WG expectations and to deliver the requirements.
		Early Dispute Resolution	Carmarthenshire has participated in the development and completion of a regional training programme for Early Dispute and Resolution Training and accompanying resources for partners, local authorities and schools. This has been developed as a train the trainer model and Carmarthenshire Inclusion Officers have been trained.
		Roles & Responsibilities	Draft professional document which captures all staff roles and responsibilities within both the Inclusion and ECP service completed. These documents have been shared with other professionals within schools, LA and health to support collaborative work.
		Transition Protocol	Inclusion Officers have participated in a regional Task and Finish group focusing on Transition at all key stages – Early Years pathways into educational settings, across school phases and into Post 16 education. A Post 16 draft protocol started by the Post 16 local Implementation Plan sub-group has been shared regionally. The regional T&FG is developing a draft protocol for all transition points. Feedback given by regional group. Awaiting second draft. LA to provide feedback. Visuals to be produced. Resources to support stages of transition and specific areas of need are being collated and good practice examples shared. Easy read resources for families and children and young people to be developed.
		Communications Strategy Plan	Participated in the regional Communications group. Plan to be evaluated by each LA and feedback provided to the group. Focus to be placed on the regional work covered and how we can share this important work with children/young people, parents and schools in a way that can be easily accessible. Animations to be developed.

Post 16 Transition projects

Audit developed and shared with Carmarthenshire School Secondary and specialist secondary settings ALNCOs. Audit evaluated and strategic plan developed on how to support schools to enhance their transition processes.

Carmarthenshire is looking at the feasibility of developing local specialist pre-entry provision for post-16. This may include key elements such as:

- Pre-entry education at CSG
- Day service Support
- Supported living
- Developing supported employment opportunities through day services
- Transition post college
- Close working with the Speech and language service to establish a programme to support the development of communication skills.

Local Post 16 Implementation Group has worked with CSG and Post 16 school providers to develop capacity, improve transition and extend courses and qualifications for learners with complex needs.

Early Years

- Development of an EY ALN pathway of identification and support.
- Mapping and gapping the sector
- Helping hands support has transferred to the Inclusion Department for management and allocation
- Improved transition arrangements under development
- Raise awareness of ALN system requirements in Early years settings.
- Share digital resources and ALN training with Early Years settings.

- Currently consulting with all stakeholders in relation to the needs of the sector and alignment with new statutory requirements.
- EYALNLO has completed a map and gap exercise, this information is being used to support the above target area.
- Helping hands model under review.
- New model of transition arrangements currently being formulated.
- Sessions to raise awareness of the ALN code and its implications for EY's settings have been held with all Early Years providers i.e. funded and non-funded settings, childminders and family centres. This will continue on a regular basis. Sharing of good practice is part of this training.

LEGAL TRAINING

with Joanne Clement and
Ben Mitchell 11KBW

Understand the Legalities of the New ALN Code!

The Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Act 2018 sets out the statutory requirements for schools, local authorities and health. To ensure you are prepared and confident to implement these statutory requirements, so you can make sound decisions regarding Additional Learning Needs, the following specialist legal training is available.

Both sessions below are available for all schools in the SWMW Region.

SESSION 1: Webinar |

DATE: 28.04.21 | TIME: 10am - 12pm | COST: FREE

AUDIENCE: Head teachers, ALNCOs and LA staff.

COURSE CONTENT

- The definition of Additional Learning Needs and Additional Learning Provision
- Duty to decide: when does it arise, who must decide?
- Duty to prepare and maintain an IDP.
- Procedure for producing an IDP: what evidence is required?
- Contents of an IDP in relation to which appeals to the Tribunal can be made.
- Who is responsible for what?
- Review, revision and reconsideration.
- Transition and cessation of IDPs
- LAC IDPs.
- Advocacy.
- Outline of appeals to tribunal.

SESSION 2: Joanne and Ben will address any questions arising from the earlier webinar.

DATE: 28.04.21 | TIME: 3pm - 4pm | COST: FREE

AUDIENCE: Head teachers, ALNCOs and LA staff.

Joanne is an experienced public and education law barrister and has practised in special educational needs law in Wales and in England for the last 15 yrs. She regularly represents parties before the Special Educational Needs tribunal for Wales and the First Tier Tribunal in England

Ben Mitchell is junior counsel at 11KBW who advises and appears on SEN matters regularly, as well as working as a junior to Joanne Clement.

Key Aims and Principles of the Code

Aim - To support the creation of a fully inclusive education system where all learners are given the opportunity to succeed, have access to an education that meets their needs and enables them to participate in, benefit from, and enjoy learning.

Principles

- a) Rights-based approach where the views, wishes and feelings of the child, child's parent or young person are central to the planning and provision of support; and the child, child's parent or young person is enabled to participate as fully as possible in the decision-making processes and has effective rights to challenge decisions about ALN, ALP and related matters.
- b) Early identification, intervention and prevention where needs are identified, and provision put in place at the earliest opportunity and where possible interventions are put in place to prevent the development or escalation of ALN.
- c) Collaboration and integration where services work together to ensure ALN are identified early and appropriate co-ordinated support is put in place to enable children and young people to achieve positive expectations, experiences and outcomes.
- d) Inclusive education where the majority of children and young people with ALN are supported to participate fully in mainstream education and a whole setting approach is taken to meeting the needs of learners with ALN.
- e) A bilingual system where all reasonable steps are taken to deliver ALP in Welsh for children and young people who require support through the medium of Welsh, with scope for increasing the delivery of ALP in Welsh over time.

Carmarthenshire's Vision – ALN is everyone's business

Creating a fully inclusive education system where all learners are given the opportunity to succeed and have access to an education that meets their needs and which enables them to participate in, benefit from, and enjoy learning is the foundation on which Carmarthenshire Education Department will build its new Additional Learning Needs (ALN) Systems.

At all stages Carmarthenshire will promote the independence and resilience of all learners so they can lead dignified lives in their local community through the provision of sustainable and integrated services that support them. All services will be developed through the person-centred processes of collaboration and co-production which emphasise facilitated discussion about needs, outcomes and provision that consider views, wishes and feelings and are designed to avoid or resolve disputes and disagreements at an early stage.

Therefore, we want the process of creating individual development plans (IDPs) to be a dynamic one that encourages participation and engagement of children, their parents and carers and young people with the design of support and intervention to meet their additional learning needs, in an integrated way with their social and health care needs. This means a process of ongoing discussion over the period of the plan rather than producing information for an annual event.

Rationale

The purpose of this document is to support schools with their planning in the implementation of the Additional Learning Needs and Education Tribunal (Wales) Act (ALNET).

The ALNET Act operates under three overarching objectives:

A unified legislative framework

An integrated collaborative process of assessment which facilitates early, timely and effective interventions

A fair and transparent system for providing information and advice

This document does not replace the objectives or actions laid out within the ALNET Act but is intended to work alongside these points to give a template and structure for the strategic introduction of the bill into schools within Carmarthenshire, highlighting available support and documentation in order to achieve this.

ALN is everybody's business, and it is important that all stakeholders are involved in the planning of ALN transformation. The document is set out into 4 priority areas, and how each priority area could be successfully introduced will vary from school to school. Each school should ensure that what is in place is appropriate for them and, more importantly, the learners within the school. For each of the priority areas, targets and outcomes are suggested, and key questions that planning can be structured around are given, with support and documentation available linked to these. The priority areas, targets and questions are all based on national, regional and local planning for ALN transformation.

Priority Areas for Carmarthenshire Schools

1. Improvement

Activity that supports the development of learning organisations through the processes of leadership, self-evaluation and professional development

2. Inclusion

Activity that supports an understanding and development of inclusive practice across the 0 – 25 age range

3. Integration

Activity that supports the development of integrated services and provision between key delivery partners

4. Independence

Activity that develops independence and resilience in learners across the 0 to 25 age range

Priority Area 1 - Improvement

Activity that supports the development of learning organisations through the processes of leadership, self-evaluation and professional development

Carmarthenshire Delivery Plan: 2020-2021

Key Area 1 - Improvement

Improvement - Activity that supports the development of learning organisations through the processes of leadership, self-evaluation and professional development

- 1. Awareness Raising - On-going activity to raise awareness of the culture change and duties under the Act and Code.
- 2. Self-evaluation and Development - Work to ensure ALN is integrated into settings' self-evaluation and development and curriculum planning
- 3. Leadership - Ensuring there is appropriate leadership and governance arrangements in place to deliver the plan and implement the Act and Code.
- 4. Monitoring and Moderation - Ensuring there are appropriate monitoring and moderation arrangements in place in each LA to evaluate the impact of the Act and Code and keep ALP under review

Activities

- 1. Awareness Raising - On-going activity to raise awareness of the culture change and duties under the Act and Code.

Early Years Activity: Distinct activities to raise awareness. Establish multi agency EY Strategic Group – ALNT workstream plan to include managers and operational. Focus on Inclusive practice, PCP, Integrated multi-agency Early Intervention, Help and Support, shared formative assessment, graduated response/decision making re ALP and LA IDP, transition process into school.

School based Activity: Whole school awareness raising e.g. WG fact sheet sharing, Sharing discussion sheet fact sheet through Cluster. Q&A session through Cluster Model. What is the role of the PCP Coach in doing this at a whole school level? Local offer/threshold/criteria. Compare contrast two models of graduated response/decision making process. Regional training package. Ongoing DDA. Visual and practical awareness raising through live videos which could be recorder for future reference (better engagement with live sessions).

Post 16 Activity: Distinct activities. Standing agenda item in Secondary/FE ALNCo forum. Multi agency Post 16 Strategic Group – ALNT workstream plan to include managers and operational. Focus on Inclusive practice and Local Offer development, PCP, Integrated multi-agency Intervention, Help and Support, shared formative assessment, graduated response/decision making re ALP and LA IDP, transition process from school into FE and once we have WG regulations re Specialist Colleges.

Parent Partnership: Raising awareness pupils/parents/carers regarding statutory processes, Rights, PCP and transition into the new system. Social media account. Raising awareness amongst professionals of pupil/parent/carer rights in respect of the Act and Code.

Children and Young People: Raising children and young people's awareness of their rights to an inclusive education, regarding PCP and the ALNET Act and Code once available. Inclusion in co-constructing Local Offer process. Social media account.

LA Activity: Liaising with DECLO to form a cohesive working relationship. Further website development – ensuring an user friendly format which acts as a 'one stop shop' for all. ALNT Strategic group workshops to ensure all Services delivery readiness – Roles and Responsibilities, Inclusion in co-constructing Inclusive Local Offer and IDP process.

2. Self-evaluation and Development - Work to ensure ALN is integrated into settings' self-evaluation and development and curriculum planning

Early Years Activity: EYALNCo review transformation for under 5. Working closely with Pembs who lead on the early years in the regional workstreams. Promote use of EY self-evaluation ALNT readiness tool to plan development and inclusive curriculum.

School based Activity: ALN evaluation tools/readiness tools and p plans to utilise tools in their whole school planning. School to prioritise ALN transformation in their School Development Plan. Schools to include ALN as part of their plans for Schools as Learning Organisations.

Post 16 Activity: Sharing ALN evaluation tool with post 16 settings. Review current regional and local post 16 plan. Update the post 16 provision mapping tool.

Parent Partnership: Access to the provision mapping and information on the local offer with opportunities to provide 4 plus 1 feedback that feeds into setting's development plans.

Children and Young People: Opportunities to provide 4 plus 1 feedback that feeds into setting's development plans.

LA Activity: ERW Education Support Officers to monitor and review ALN transformation and PCP as part of their support and challenge (self-evaluation, SDP). ERW school improvement officers to join clusters. (ALN SLO - Schools as Learning Organisations) Monitor and review implementation of ALN transformation and schools' readiness to implement PCP. Toolkit has been developed to be utilised by ESASA
Systemic planning of how self-evaluation tools are used to support core visits, action plan further activity and address areas for development. (core visit 2, spring term)

3. Leadership - Ensuring there is appropriate leadership and governance arrangements in place to deliver the plan and implement the Act and Code.

Early Years Activity: EYALNLO recruited and a programme of work for governance arrangements are in place and ongoing planning. Map out the different governance arrangements for the early years providers. Important to map out previous training and information shared within their groups.

School based Activity: Linking in with Education Support Officers when overlooking leadership role. Deliver new Code when it is released. Training needed for Heads and Governors. (Governor training 24/11/2020 + 02/12/2020). Should there been an identified Governor for Inclusion? What are the processes to challenge inclusive practices within a school? SDP? Audit Tools? How is this fed-back? Are the processes having an impact? All ALNCo will be familiar with the new regulations regarding their new roles and responsibilities.

Post 16 Activity: Post 16 lead role to be advertised. Deliver new Code and outline DDA duties and responsibilities.

Parent Partnership: Sharing information on the role of leaders (ALNCo, Head, Governor) Family Forum and ensure that all stakeholders can work collaboratively.

Children and Young People: Ensure Children and Young People's Participation Officer continues to promote Children's Rights and makes links with ALNET Act and Code.

LA Activity: Planning session with Heads regarding the role and responsibilities of the ALNCo under the new code. Once HT are aware activity of this nature needs to be fed through the cluster model – ESAS will be in attendance for the same activity. Do self-evaluation audits need to be amended to reflect the changes in the roles and responsibilities of the ALNCo's? Activate the ALNT Strategic Group to ensure leadership re delivery across the LA Services and Multi-agency.

4. Monitoring and Moderation - Ensuring there are appropriate monitoring and moderation arrangements in place in each LA to evaluate the impact of the Act and Code and keep ALP under review

Early Years Activity: Local offer, Early Years ALNCo and IDP review process.

School based Activity: School to deliver a universal approach with inclusive classroom teaching. School Self Evaluation and provision maps to be in place and reviewed regularly.

Post 16 Activity: Local offer and IDP review process.

Parent Partnership: Family Forum enabled to influence processes and possible change by working collaboratively. The voice of children and young people to be included and reflected. Local offer and IDP review process.

Children and Young People: Local offer and IDP review process.

LA Activity: Complete the local offer for all key areas of ALN. Outline plan for universal inclusive classroom teaching. Sharing the minimum requirement for local offer with Education Support Officers. Self-evaluation audits to be updated to include this minimum requirement? Determine the Moderation process re LA IDPs e.g. Inclusion Panel. Establish the Learning Organisation role and responsibility of the ALNT Strategic Group re evaluating the impact of the ALNET Act and Code and keeping ALP under review.

Fformiwla Ariannu / Formula Funding

Ar gyfer y rhan fwyaf o blant mewn ysgolion prif ffrwd, gan gynnwys y rhai ag ADY ac anableddau, dyrennir cyllid iddynt drwy gyllideb yr ysgol ac fe'i gelwir yn gyllid fesul disgybl. Mae'r cyllid hwn yn cefnogi'r holl ddysgu ac fe'i defnyddir ar gyfer cyflog staff, gan gynnwys y CADY, cyfleusterau ac adnoddau ADY.

Dylid gwario canran o gyfanswm y cyllid fesul disgybl a dderbynnir gan ysgol, ar ddarparu ar gyfer disgyblion ag ADY. Disgwylir i ysgolion Sir Gaerfyrddin ddyrannu o leiaf 5% o'u cyllid fesul disgybl i'w cyllideb ADY.

Dyrennir gweddill y fformiwla ariannu drwy ychwanegion sy'n cefnogi'r categorïau gwariant a nodwyd na fyddai dyraniad ar niferoedd disgyblion yn briodol ar eu cyfer.

Darperir cyllid ychwanegol i ysgolion ar gyfer unrhyw Datganiadau newydd y cytunwyd arnynt yn ystod y flwyddyn ariannol.

For the majority of children in mainstream schools, including those with ALNs and disabilities, funding is allocated to them through the school budget and is known as the per pupil funding. This funding supports all learning and is used for staff salaries, including the ALNCO, facilities and ALN resources.

A percentage of the total amount of per pupil funding received by a school should be spent on providing for pupils with ALN. In Carmarthenshire schools are expected to allocate at least 5% of their per pupil funding to their ALN budget.

The remainder of the funding formula is allocated through supplements which support the identified categories of spend for which an allocation on pupil numbers would not be appropriate.

Additional funding is provided to schools for any new Statements agreed during the financial year.

Atodiadau ADY Ysgolion / ALN School Supplements

Mae ysgolion yn derbyn ychwanegiadau cyllid fel y ganlyn ar gyfer ADY:

- ADY
- AAA

Dyrennir ychwanegiadau ADY:

£1000 fesul plentyn mewn gofal	25% prydau ysgol am ddim
25% Gweithredu gan yr Ysgol	50% Gweithredu gan yr Ysgol a Mwy

Ychwanegiadau AAA

- Ychwanegiad 100% ar gyfer y rhai y cytunwyd arnynt hyd at fis Hydref 2019.
- O fis Hydref 2019: Cynradd - 50% ar gyfer Datganiadau newydd; Uwchradd - 40% neu 45% fesul Datganiad.

Cytunir ar yr uchod ar sail:

- Prydau am Ddim a gefnogir drwy linyddau eraill yn ogystal.
- Cofrestr AAA i'w monitro a'i herio.
- Pan fo'r gofyniad y Datganiad yn fwy nag 1 CD fesul disgybl, bydd yr ALN yn ariannu'r gofynion ychwanegol yn llawn.
- Wrth i Ddatganiadau leihau, y bwriad yw bod y cyllid yn trosglwyddo i'r ychwanegiad ADY.

Schools receive the following funding supplements for ALN:

- ALN
- SEN

ALN supplement is allocated:

£1000 per LAC child	25% FSM
25% School Action	50% School Action Plus

SEN supplement

- 100% supplement for those agreed up to October 2019
- From October 2019: Primary - 50% for new Statements; Secondary 40% or 45% per statement

The above is agreed on the basis of:

- FSM supported through other strands in addition.
- SEN register to be monitored and challenged.
- Where statementing requirement exceeds 1 TA per pupil, LA will fully fund additional requirements
- With the intention that as Statements reduce, funding will transfer to the ALN supplement.

Any new formula funding mechanism needs to support and prepare school for ALN Transformation that will reform the way in which children with ALN are identified, assessed and supported. Previous categories of ALN - School Action, School Action Plus and Statements- will cease and schools will be required to make statutory Additional Learning Provision through Individual Development Plans (IDPs).

In consultation with Head teachers the below suggested formula going forward has considered a range of proxy indicators which reflect the contextual nature of schools.

- Social-deprivation
- Pupil numbers
- Free School Meals
- Looked After Children
- Universal Learning Offer
- Number of children with Emerging and Identified needs
- Requirement for IDPs based on the WG criteria
- Requirement for a responsive system of support

Agenda Item 6

Education & Children Scrutiny Committee

11th June 2021

Subject

Purpose: Discussion paper to re-establish school commitment sessions

To consider and comment on the following issues:

- The role of scrutiny in school improvement
- The role of scrutiny in the context of accountability
- Basic principles for engagement with schools
- Possible themes to be considered for the next academic year

Reasons:

- As a result of Pandemic, there have been delays in arrangements for visits to schools. New guidance from the Welsh Government provides specific guidance on the responsibilities of education scrutiny
- The national guidance firmly outlines the responsibilities of democratic scrutiny in the context of school improvement and ensuring accountability for the quality of our education support services for schools
- To ensure that democratic scrutiny has the opportunity to understand the impact of the authority's support services on maintaining high quality provision in our schools.

To be referred to the Executive Board / Council for decision: NO

Executive Summary
Education & Children Scrutiny Committee
11th June 2021

Re-establishing engagement sessions with schools.

Recent national guidance on self-evaluation and school improvement states that the focus of democratic accountability arrangements including education scrutiny should be on the quality and impact of governance and accountability arrangements with regard to schools and the effectiveness of local authority to support schools and learners.

This guidance therefore provides a new point of reference for the Carmarthenshire Education and Children Scrutiny Committee, outlining Welsh Government's expectations of them in contributing to school improvement.

It is vital that schools, especially those in need of greater support, are able to receive effective support from peers and the local authority, in order to bring about sustainable improvement. The role of this committee is key in ensuring that the appropriate support is reaching our schools and that the impact of this support is felt by practitioners and pupils alike.

School Engagement Sessions (previously scrutiny school visits)

(For consideration from September 2021 onwards.)

Scrutiny and School Improvement

The overarching purpose of school improvement is to help schools give learners the best possible learning experiences and outcomes.

Within the context of the new curriculum, this guidance aims to clarify the role of the school engagement sessions in fostering sustainable school improvement through a clear framework for evaluation, improvement and accountability.

In our approach, there is a clear distinction between evaluation and improvement activities and accountability. The majority of the energy and focus in the Carmarthenshire schools system should be on delivering school improvement, guided by effective self-evaluation, improvement planning and support in all schools. As part of evaluation and improvement, practitioners and school leaders should have the support and confidence to learn and improve their practice continually. This will enable them to thrive in a supportive and collaborative environment that will raise standards and ensure every young person can fulfil their potential.

Fundamental to the new arrangements is robust and continuous self-evaluation by schools. Effective self-evaluation will be complemented by professional dialogue between schools and the local authority, to agree on schools' improvement priorities and support. Informed by this, all schools will have a single, School Development Plan they are working towards.

Scrutiny and Accountability

The accountability system, in contrast, is the safety net to ensure that evaluation and improvement is functioning effectively. It should not drive school improvement activity, although it should ensure that problems are identified and addressed.

Therefore, alongside the improvement and support roles played by the local authority, the system requires effective democratic accountability and governance arrangements.

Accountability is for governance purposes. Information available and used for this purpose will help scrutiny to oversee the quality of delivery by the local authority and, in doing so, to fulfil their democratic accountability functions.

Democratic accountability in the local authority is critical to strengthening the middle tier's role in supporting schools and to monitor, challenge and improve the work it does as part of this role.

Scrutiny School Engagement Sessions

Scrutiny should enhance both improvement, accountability, and transparency within the local authority. The Education Scrutiny Committee should focus on ensuring that schools are well supported to deliver high quality education to all pupils.

School engagement sessions should be used effectively as part of scrutiny's wider processes to:

1. hold Cabinet members to account for the quality and impact of the Council's services to support schools;
2. scrutinise the work of the Council with regard to the services provided to support schools, rather than using their accountability arrangements to hold schools to account;
3. scrutinise how effectively the local authority works with the regional consortium, understanding that accountability for regional consortia is through their Joint Committee or Company Board (see below);
4. monitor and scrutinise the use of statutory powers to support and improve schools causing concern, in particular secondary schools.
5. consider the impact of decisions to reorganise schools on the improvement of schools.

Direct and first-hand engagement with schools will provide valuable opportunities for members of scrutiny to better understand the impact that the local authority's support has on provision across our school system.

The engagement sessions can take the form of physical meetings to schools, use of digital technology or requesting schools to attend meetings in the council chamber.

Estyn

Estyn's inspections of local authorities will be regular. The focus should be on the quality and impact of governance and accountability arrangements with regard to schools and the effectiveness of local authority to support schools and learners. This will include evaluating the effectiveness of democratic accountability arrangements in supporting school improvement

EDUCATION & CHILDREN SCRUTINY COMMITTEE – 11TH JUNE 2021

FORTHCOMING ITEMS FOR THE NEXT MEETING – 8TH JULY 2021

Proposed Agenda Item	Background	Reason for report
Cynllun Adfer Addysg / Education Recovery Plan	Covid-19 and related lockdown periods impacted on teaching and learning, and the progress achieved by some learners. Schools were physically closed for prolonged periods which impacted on educational progress and learner wellbeing.	Whilst schools delivered a blended, online offer when schools were closed it is imperative that we now identify the support learners require to enable further progress. The report will outline how the Department has worked to support schools with the 'Stepping Forward' agenda.
Cynllun Strategol Cymraeg mewn Addysg / Welsh in Education Strategic Plan	The County Council has a statutory responsibility to create and consult upon a Welsh in Education Strategic Plan. The Plan for 2022-2032 is currently being developed.	The '2022-2032 Draft Welsh in Education Strategic Plan' will be shared with Scrutiny Members for comment and feedback.
Gwasanaethau Plant (cyfraddau atgyfeirio uwch) Children's Services (increased referral rates)	Covid-19 has had an adverse impact on some children, young people and their families. Our Children's Social Services continued to fully function during Covid providing support and input where required.	At the request of the Education and Children's Services Scrutiny Committee this report is presented to outline the number of children referred to services and the type of support provide during Covid-19.

EXECUTIVE BOARD FORWARD WORK PROGRAMME 20/21
–as at 23/03/2021 (For the period March 21 – February 22)

Introduction

This plan is published to encourage and enable greater understanding between the Executive, all Councillors, the public and other stakeholders. It assists the Scrutiny Committees in planning their contribution to policy development and holding the executive to account.

The plan gives the public and stakeholders a chance to see the forthcoming major decisions to be made by the Executive Board over the next 12 months. It is reviewed and published quarterly to take account of changes and additional key decisions.

4. CURRICULUM FOR WALES

[NOTE: Councillor D. Jones had earlier declared an interest in this item.]

The Committee considered a report providing an overview of the support available to Carmarthenshire's schools and specialist settings from the County Council and from the regional consortium, ERW, as they implement the Curriculum for Wales by September 2022.

The Authority is developing a professional learning proposal for the Curriculum for Wales that complements the work of the Inclusion Team, the aim of which is to ensure that a good pedagogy meets the needs of individual pupils at all levels and that schools effectively progress in line with the aims of the National Mission. In addition, Education Support Advisers and officers from the Inclusion, Behaviour and Educational Psychologists Teams hold ongoing constructive conversations with individual schools to discuss progress with the transition to the Curriculum for Wales, as well as the Additional Learning Needs transition.

The report provided details of the nature of support being provided and proposed additional/alternative strategic approaches to enhance the current provision including the following:-

- ❖ the current context and schools' engagement with the new curriculum to date;
- ❖ the strategic approach of the Education & Children's Services department;
- ❖ the support available to schools and specialist settings;
- ❖ the engagement of schools and specialist settings;
- ❖ questions for governors as they support their schools on this journey;
- ❖ the Research and Professional Learning networks;
- ❖ expectations;
- ❖ the role of ERW.

The following questions/observations were raised on the report:-

- Asked what are the short and long term plans with regard to ERW, the Director explained that this term four Local Authorities are still working in partnership and are still full members of ERW – Pembrokeshire, Carmarthenshire, Swansea and Powys. Whilst Neath Port Talbot and Ceredigion have left the partnership, an agreement has been reached to continue to provide some services to them, mainly leadership programmes. The intention now is for ERW to come to an end on 31st August of this year with a new partnership starting on 1st September, 2021. The provision and support will continue to be provided by the new partnership but from September on that provision could potentially be more local, pending the outcome of discussions taking place at the moment. More information regarding the new structure will be shared with new partners soon and hopefully officers will be in a position to provide further details to the Committee at the next meeting. The Head of Curriculum and Wellbeing added that the Curriculum Team within ERW have been working hard to support schools through this transitional phase;
- Reference was made to the important role that governors have in this process and officers were asked how the Authority will ensure that support is provided consistently and fairly to all schools throughout the county. How will Governors know to what extent the staff at their schools have taken part in virtual training courses and how much the staff understand about the challenges ahead etc. The Executive Board Member for Education & Children agreed that it is important for governors to keep their finger on the pulse. Training sessions will be held for governors in September to help them know what sort of questions they should be asking their headteachers. The Director added that all schools should have a School Development Plan which will include the curriculum as one of its priorities and a focus for development. He acknowledged that there is still some work to be done on the evaluation process for the new curriculum which he was sure would be in place in time for September 2022;

- Asked for an example of the new way of teaching compared to the old way, the Educational Support Adviser explained that it was mainly to do with building relationships with children and getting them to contribute in the classroom. The Director added that it was about moving from a set curriculum where you tick boxes for content covered to a curriculum which suits the learners' needs including local history, local culture etc.;
- Concern was expressed over the risk that some schools might continue to use the existing curriculum instead of embracing the new curriculum. The Executive Board Member stressed how important it is to ensure that our schools are brave and look to the future. Communication skills are so important and so we must build children's confidence to speak publicly. There is more emphasis on digital working and learning which is going to develop and will be a very important factor in education in the future not just during a pandemic. Distance learning will be with us and we need to ensure that our children have the necessary skills;
- With regard to concerns that some schools may not embrace the new curriculum, officers were asked how this will be monitored and how will we ensure that best practice is shared throughout the county. The Educational Support Adviser informed the Committee that information is collected from all schools constantly. It was difficult to undertake any assessments during lockdown, however, any examples of best practice are shared with all schools. Additional support is provided for any schools where it is required. The Director added that it was essential to ensure that all schools have the support required to make sure that they are on the right path and are ready for September 2022, which will be the priority for the team;
- Concern was expressed in relation to the pressure currently on schools due to the problems caused by the pandemic and the significant additional pressure of having to deal with one of the most major changes to education in the last 20 years happening at the same time. More needs to be done to support schools especially the smaller schools who do not have the resources. The Head of Curriculum and Wellbeing explained that the new curriculum could be used as a pre-cursor and a vehicle out of the pandemic and could provide a blueprint and framework to build support for learners' recovery. It was important to be pragmatic in terms of what is achievable by September 2021 and officers were liaising with the Inspectorate in that respect in light of the interruption to their transition year. He added that it was important to concentrate on getting the vision right first before moving on;
- Concern was expressed that schools are stressing over what Estyn inspections are going to look like. The Head of Curriculum & Wellbeing informed the Committee that this should have been the transition year, however, the Inspectorate halted inspection for the vast majority of schools. The Director added that conversations have been held over the past few weeks with Estyn and WG regarding resuming school inspections and what schools should expect. Estyn will look at how schools have adapted to and dealt with COVID, however, they will be supportive of any schools piloting new approaches to school curriculum design and implementation as well and that will be part of the inspection process. It will be about how schools are evolving and developing in readiness for September;

- Reference was made to school development plans and the fact that they vary in quality across Wales. Officers were asked if an opportunity existed here to track these plans and ensure consistency across the county and aim for high standards. Challenge Advisers do good work but can they ensure that all Governing Bodies have feedback regarding what has worked and what hasn't worked etc. The Director explained that the WG are working on a new plan in relation to school improvement which clearly outlines the responsibilities of all concerned including governors, the Local Authority and WG. He stressed that there is a monitoring process in place locally with regard to School Improvement Plans.

UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED that the report be received.

5. DEPARTMENTAL BUSINESS PLAN

The Committee received the Education & Children's Services departmental business plan 2021/22 which indicated how the service supports the delivery of the Corporate Strategy.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the plan presented was an abbreviated version without the review section as this was covered in the service COVID-19 Impact Assessments previously submitted to the Committee for consideration.

It was noted that the impact of the pandemic and Brexit created a lot of uncertainty in future planning and consequently the business plan was subject to change.

The following questions/observations were raised on the report:-

- Reference was made to the table on page 51 of the agenda pack and officers were asked why there was no mention of the environment as surely there were impacts for the department e.g. Safe Routes to School. The Executive Board Member stressed that the environment is an important factor in education. The Director explained that the relevant boxes are only ticked if there is a dedicated action for the department in the Wellbeing Plan. The department does contribute towards many aspects of environmental work within our schools. He added that he would liaise with relevant officers regarding the reporting of that particular objective, including the key actions and measures;
- Reference was made to the statement in the plan that post 16 provision will be reviewed in order to create a sustainable provision and concern was expressed that this suggested that the provision does not currently exist. The Director explained that a review of post 16 provision available was undertaken when it became apparent that the numbers in the 6th form in some schools are not sustainable and cannot therefore offer the range of subjects required. The Head of Curriculum & Wellbeing added that post 16 provision is a key area as it provides the transition from statutory education to further education to the workplace and a lot of work is being done in this area. A report will be presented to the Committee on this subject in the near future;

- Reference was made to the ability of communities to use school facilities and the challenges involved and officers were asked what progress has been made with the model agreement. The Head of Access to Education explained that with regard to making best use of facilities to support wider community activity, officers were currently trying to make sure that there are appropriate leases in place to protect both the schools and the Local Authority;
- Reference was made to the fact that some concerns have previously been raised with regard to the terms in relation to the Mutual Investment Model (MIM) and officers were asked if the Committee would be receiving an update addressing those concerns. The Head of Access to Education explained that any project identified for MIM would need approval and would be reported to the Scrutiny Committee;
- With regard to the Children's Services Divisional Plan, reference was made to the fact that the percentages included in the report don't actually provide any information. The Director explained that they are not actions but rather statutory targets which are reported to WG on a regular basis. He added that the targets are used for measures so it was just a formatting issue which he would ensure is addressed;
- Concern was expressed over the various risk elements referred to within the report and the fact that the Committee should look into these in detail over the next few months. The Director explained that there was a departmental risk report and there were safeguards in place to acknowledge and address those risks. He added that he could share this document with the Committee if they so wished;
- With regard to the review to be undertaken of all school admission dates and age ranges, officers were asked if they are happy that the capacity is in place to undertake this review. The Head of Access to Education explained that he is currently preparing a proposal report for consideration by the Departmental Management Team to look at a number of options. Consultation on any proposed revisions to the Admissions Policy will be undertaken next year.

UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED that the Education & Children Departmental Business Plan 2021/22 be received.

6. EXPLANATION FOR NON-SUBMISSION OF SCRUTINY REPORT

The Committee received an explanation for the non-submission of the following scrutiny report:-

- ALN Transformation Action Plan

UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED that the information be noted.

7. FORWARD WORK PROGRAMME

The Committee considered its Forward Work Programme (FWP) for the period May to December 2021, which had been prepared in accordance with the Council's Constitution which required Scrutiny Committees to develop and publish annual FWPs identifying issues and reports to be considered at meetings during the course of the municipal year.

The Committee decided at a FWP development session to set the FWP initially for the period May to December 2021 and the period January to April 2022 will be discussed at a later date. This did not preclude items identified during the year for consideration at these meetings being included and the FWP updated accordingly.

Reference was made to the fact that the Committee had requested that workshops be held on the Modernising Education Programme and Self Evaluation and that these be held prior to September 2021 if possible.

UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED that the Education & Children Scrutiny Committee Forward Work Programme for the period May to December 2021 be endorsed.

8. TASK & FINISH

The Education & Children Scrutiny Committee has agreed to establish a Task & Finish Group to review the current consultation process for school organisation changes including changes in linguistic provision and closure of schools.

The Committee's discussions on the key aims and objectives for this Task & Finish review have been captured and developed into a draft Planning and Scoping document.

The Task & Finish Group will consist of six elected members and a co-opted member and be politically balanced as far as possible. The Task & Finish Group will arrange to hold its first meeting as soon as possible and will appoint a Chair and Vice-Chair from its membership at this meeting. Officers from the Education & Children's Services Department and the Democratic Services Unit within the Chief Executive's Department will support the work of the Task & Finish Group.

Reference was made to the fact that towards the end of the scoping document, in the box relating to what information/documents are required to inform the work of the study, the reference to "agenda item 6" needs to be removed.

UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED

8.1 that the Task and Finish Scoping Document be received;

8.2 that the aims and scope of the work of the Task and Finish Group be endorsed;

8.3 that the membership of the Task and Finish Group be as follows:-

- Councillor Kim Broom
- Councillor Shahana Najmi
- Councillor Darren Price
- Councillor Emlyn Schiavone
- Councillor Bill Thomas
- Councillor Edward Thomas
- Mr Anthony Enoch

9. TO SIGN AS A CORRECT RECORD THE MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE HELD ON THE 17TH MARCH, 2021

Reference was made to pages 3 and 4 of the minutes regarding the national consultation on language categorisation. It was pointed out that the Committee agreed that the response to the consultation should state that there should be more flexibility for secondary schools. The Head of Curriculum and Wellbeing confirmed that this formed part of the consultation response.

UNANIMOUSLY RESOLVED that the minutes of the meeting of the Committee held on 17th March, 2021 be signed as a correct record.
