Subject: Proposals for Llandybie RFC

Dear Sirs,

I write to lodge a complaint regarding the proposed use and opening times of Llandybie RFC, Woodfield Road, Llandybie, Ammanford SA18 3UT. Proprietors David Andrew Thomas and Elizabeth Sarah Meiner Thomas.

I live at 1 Heol Marlais, Llandybie, SA18 3UY. I am in poor health. In number 2 is an elderly man in poor health. In number 3 is a young mother with three very young children one of which is a baby less than a year old. In number 4 is an elderly lady. All these flats are situated directly opposite the rugby club. In my view very little thought has gone into the impact these proposals will have on these people or how these proposals will effect people living in surrounding flats and houses.

The rugby club is situated in a very built up residential area where there are many young families close to it of whom have very young children. The proposals suggest that the rugby club will be operated more like a night club. If it was situated in the middle of a town such as Carmarthen or Swansea it would be more acceptable but where it is the proposals are very unacceptable. It's proposed long opening hours with live and recorded music every day are not what you would expect from a small village rugby club.

On the 9 October the rugby club hosted a funeral wake. The attendees could be easily heard in my living room singing inside the club and even more easily talking and laughing outside it. Fortunately this event closed down by 11 o'clock at night the bidding of goodnight and increased traffic noise ceased by about 11.15pm. Judging things on this event I am dreading what clearly is going to be a huge noise pollution in one form or another coming from the club for between 12 to 15 hours per day not to mention the increased traffic noise that will inevitably take place.

I urge that these proposals are turned down.

Yours faithfully,

Ms Juliette Fane
