Strategic Equality Plan Annual Report 2019-20

Recommendations / key decisions required:

- To approve the Strategic Equality Plan Annual Report for 2019-20.

Reasons:

The Equality Act 2010 brings together and replaces the previous legislation and simplifies and strengthens the law, making it easier for people to understand and comply with. The majority of the Act came into force on 1 October 2010.

Annual reporting is one of the prime opportunities for review, monitoring and reflection and for an authority to capture its ongoing activity around meeting the general and specific duties. This includes any reflection on whether its arrangements and actions are effective and remain appropriate. Annual reports will assist authorities in monitoring their own work, as well as providing transparency for stakeholders.

Annual reports must include the specified employment information, including information on training and pay. The Workforce Information Report is prepared by the People Management division.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Strategic Equality Plan Annual Report 2019-20

The Equality Act 2010 includes a public sector equality duty, replacing the separate duties on race, disability and gender equality.

The new general duty covers the following protected characteristics:

- Age
- Gender reassignment
- Sex
- Race – including ethnic or national origin, colour or nationality
- Religion and belief – including lack of belief
- Disability
- Marriage and Civil Partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Sexual Orientation.

The aim of the general duty is to ensure that public authorities and those carrying out a public function consider how they can positively contribute to a fairer society through advancing equality and good relations in their day-to-day activities.

Public bodies are required to have due regard to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and those who do not
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

Annual Reporting as a Specific Duty

The Wales specific equality duties set out the requirement to report annually under the heading Reports by authorities on compliance with the general duty. This is a useful reminder that the essential purpose of the specific duties is to help authorities to have better due regard to the need to achieve the 3 aims of the General Duty. The Regulations invite authorities to produce an annual report covering any matter that is relevant to the authority fulfilling the general and specific equality duties.
