

Draft Job Advert: Director of Place

Carmarthenshire is a county made up of diverse landscapes including urban and rural areas, country parks and historic coastal environments and our Council is a high performing, vibrant and forward-thinking local authority that is constantly look to improve and is committed to maintaining its excellent reputation for delivering first class services. We are now looking to appoint a Director of Place to help us deliver our ambition.

The Director of Place is a fantastic opportunity to join a forward thinking Council that is looking to be innovative in how they deliver services that meet the changing needs of residents. You will be an innovative, inclusive leader that creates a positive environment were creativity and teamwork flourish and where individuals and teams can fulfil their potential.

In this vital role, you will lead and set the direction for our Environmental Services, Planning, Highways, Transport, Property and Waste strategies as well as leading and contributing to climate change and net zero carbon agendas.

Is the job for you?

If you have considerable energy and drive and have a proven track record of successful leadership and strategic management within a multi-functional organisation of comparable scope and complexity this may be the opportunity you have been looking for. In addition, you will know what first class services look like, and will know how to support and motivate your staff achieve these standards within a demanding environment.

For an informal discussion about this role, please contact Wendy Walters, Chief Executive, at Carmarthenshire County Council on 01267 224110

For an application pack visit: www.carmarthenshire.gov.uk

Closing date: TBC